

Elevation

In 2019 we have declared a year of Elevation. Elevation in our Faith, Family, Finances and our Future.

To elevate means to make (something) higher.

To elevate means to lift (something) up.

To elevate means to increase the level of (something).

To elevate means to raise (someone) to a higher rank or level.

Elevation is the act of raising to a higher position or status or the condition of being raised.

Elevation is a progression upward in rank.

Words used to help describe elevation would be promotion, mount up and exaltation.

I

Consider Psalms 75:6-7 ^{NKJ}

Promotion comes neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the south, but God is the Judge.

Elevation may come in many areas of life. It may come in marriage, favor in relationships or in business and even in ministry.

We must realize that when elevation comes, it is from God.

God has purpose and destiny for our lives and He wants us to enter into it.

An elevated life is both a promise and a challenge.

II

The Challenge of Elevation

God leads us through a process of shaking and discipline which can be painful at the time, however it will lead to elevation.

Elevation brings about a shift and the higher we go the more we must change.

We experience turbulence as we climb to different heights and altitudes. Turbulence can be described as violent or unsteady movement, conflict, unexpected activities, frustrations, confusion, instability, upheaval and disorder.

III

How to handle turbulence in the Process of Elevation

- God is in control. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever. Hebrews 13:8
- Be Still and know that I am God; Psalm 46:10
- You are not the only one going through turbulence – Hebrews 10:25
- Remember it's a temporary season – I Peter 5:10; 2 Corinthians 4:17-18
- Keep moving through turbulence – 2 Corinthians 4:8-9
- While in turbulence things begin to change
- Be mindful of your conversation – Proverbs 18:21
- There are a host of people assigned to you in your turbulence season.

IV

It's a Year of Elevation, and don't let a temporary season of turbulence, keep you from the place God has ordained.

Elevate our faith, family, finances and our future!

Shout Elevation!
