

Leadership and the Crisis of Change III

Exodus 3:1-10 Moses the shepherd has a sudden crisis of change.

Exodus 3:11-15 Moses processed internally and externally to change.

We process internally through quietness and meditation.

Moses spent forty years on the backside of the desert. Vs Exodus 3:1

Moses spent forty days and nights on the mount. Vs Exodus 24:18

Jesus was forty days in the wilderness. Vs Matthew 4:2

In quietness we...

- Hear our own heartbeat.
- Hear our own thoughts.
- Process our own thoughts.
- Dispel wrong thinking.
- Embrace His insights.
- Find the calm, and quietness in the midst of the crisis.

Find the peace in the midst of the storm.

Consider Exodus 4:1-5

I

Leaders in the time of crisis must access their resources.

During times of crisis answer the question, what is in your hand?

With you and God you have more than you know. Vs 2

What supplies are with you?

Unlock the hidden potential in those resources.

- Inject divine creativity into those resource.

II

Leaders during times of crisis access what's in the house.

Consider 2 Kings 4:1-7

This woman was in a desperate condition, creditors were harassing her.

This woman was facing a depressing crisis, sons going into slavery. Vs 1

The woman was directed to check her resources in her house.

The woman discovered there was miracle in her house.

As a leader help other discover the miracle in their house.

This woman journeyed from desperation to a dynamic business woman.

- There is a miracle in your house.

III

Leaders during times of crisis access what is inside them.

What has God invested in you for such a time as this?

Consider 2 Cor. 4:7

2 Cor. 4:7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellence of the power may be of God and not of us.

What is your untapped ability?

What is your unused strength?

What is that untouched God given creativity in you?

What is that deep reservoir of potential you have not stirred?

- What is the treasure in you?

During times of crisis tap into your treasure.

During times of crisis use your treasure.

During times of crisis exploit your treasure.

2 Timothy 1:6 Therefore I remind you to stir up the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands.
