

Multidimensional Leaders empower people!

Leaders who desire to lead a way that pleases God can't separate leadership from a relationship.

Just as money is the currency of exchange in the earth realm, relationships are the currency for the Kingdom of God.

God loved us, so He gave His Son, and Jesus loved us; He left us the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit empowers us to do our assignments.

Leadership is relational.

Leadership is critical in public space, marketplace, and ministry space.

Leaders empower people for the win.

Only secure leaders give power to others.

If you want to be a successful leader, you have to become empowered.

Character Study: Barnabas - Acts 9:26-29

I

Leaders empower people when they add value to others.

Conversion of Saul on the road of Damascus

The Apostles were afraid of him and didn't believe he was converted. Acts 9:26

Barnabas believed in Paul before anyone else did. He endorsed him.

Empowered leaders are willing to take a risk on people because they see the potential in others.

II

Barnabas endorsed Paul to other leaders

But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles. And he declared to them how he had seen the Lord on the road, and that He had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus. Acts 9:27

Empowered leaders will tell the story for others.

Help others make a connection on the strength of your credibility.

It empowered leaders to open doors for others.

So, he (Paul) was with them at Jerusalem, coming in and going out. Acts 9:28

III

Empowered leaders help others reach their potential.

And he (Paul) spoke boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus. Acts 9:29

Paul was able to move throughout teaching people the Word.

We must invest in emerging leaders.

Barnabas found Paul and made him a leader in Antioch. Acts 11:26

Reflective Nugget:

Now, when I am old and gray-headed, O God, do not forsake me, until I declare Your strength to this generation. Your power to everyone who is to me. Psalms 71:18

Multidimensional leaders empower others!
